Part 2

Care and protection of children and young persons

Principles

13 Principles

- (1) Every court or person exercising powers conferred by or under this Part, Part 3 or 3A, or sections 341 to 350, must adopt, as the first and paramount consideration, the well-being and best interests of the relevant child or young person (as required by section 4A(1)).
- (2) In determining the well-being and best interests of the child or young person, the court or person must be guided by, in addition to the principles in section 5, the following principles:
 - (a) it is desirable to provide early support and services to—

- (i) improve the safety and well-being of a child or young person at risk of harm:
 - (ii) reduce the risk of future harm to that child or young person, including the risk of offending or reoffending:
 - (iii) reduce the risk that a parent may be unable or unwilling to care for the child or young person:
- (b) as a consequence of applying the principle in paragraph (a), any support or services provided under this Act in relation to the child or young person—
- (i) should strengthen and support the child's or young person's family, whānau, hapū, iwi, and family group to enable them to—
 - (A) care for the child or young person or any other or future child or young person of that family or whānau; and
 - (B) nurture the well-being and development of that child or young person; and
 - (C) reduce the likelihood of future harm to that child or young person or offending or reoffending by them:
 - (ii) should recognise and promote mana tamaiti (tamariki) and the whakapapa of the child or young person and relevant whanaungatanga rights and responsibilities of their family, whānau, hapū, iwi, and family group:
 - (iii) should, wherever possible, be undertaken on a consensual basis and in collaboration with those involved, including the child or young person:
- (c) if a child or young person is considered to be in need of care or protection on the ground specified in section 14(1)(e), the principle in section 208(2)(g):
- (d) a power under this Part that can be exercised without the consent of the persons concerned is to be exercised only to the extent necessary to protect a child or young person from harm or likely harm:
- (e) assistance and support should be provided, unless it is impracticable or unreasonable to do so, to assist families, whānau, hapū, iwi, and family groups where—
- (i) there is a risk that a child or young person may be removed from their care; and
 - (ii) in the other circumstances where the child or young person is, or is likely to be, in need of care and protection (for example, where a family group conference plan provides for assistance to be given to a child or parent to address a behavioural issue that may lead, or has led, to the child's removal from the family):

- (f) if a child or young person is identified by the department as being at risk of removal from the care of the members of their family, whānau, hapū, iwi, or family group who are the child's or young person's usual caregivers, planning for the child's or young person's long-term stability and continuity of living arrangements should—
 - (i) commence early; and
 - (ii) include steps to make an alternative care arrangement for the child or young person, should it be required:
- (g) a child or young person should be removed from the care of the member or members of the child's or young person's family, whānau, hapū, iwi, or family group who are the child's or young person's usual caregivers only if there is a serious risk of harm to the child or young person:
- (h) if a child or young person is removed in circumstances described in paragraph (g), the child or young person should, wherever that is possible and consistent with the child's or young person's best interests, be returned to those members of the child's or young person's family, whānau, hapū, iwi, or family group who are the child's or young person's usual caregivers:
- (i) if a child or young person is removed in circumstances described in paragraph (g), decisions about placement should—
 - (i) be consistent with the principles set out in sections 4A(1) and 5:
 - (ii) address the needs of the child or young person:
 - (iii) be guided by the following:
 - (A) preference should be given to placing the child or young person with a member of the child's or young person's wider family, whānau, hapū, iwi, or family group who is able to meet their needs, including for a safe, stable, and loving home:
 - (B) it is desirable for a child or young person to live with a family, or if that is not possible, in a family-like setting:
 - (C) the importance of mana tamaiti (tamariki), whakapapa, and whanaungatanga should be recognised and promoted:
 - (D) where practicable, a child or young person should be placed with the child's or young person's siblings:
 - (E) a child or young person should be placed where the child or young person can develop a sense of belonging and attachment:
- (j) a child or young person who is in the care or custody of the chief executive or a body or an organisation approved under section 396 should receive special protection and assistance designed to—

- (i) address their particular needs, including—
 - (A) needs for physical and health care; and
 - (B) emotional care that contributes to their positive self-regard; and
 - (C) identity needs; and
 - (D) material needs relating to education, recreation, and general living:
- (ii) preserve the child's or young person's connections with the child's or young person's—
 - (A) siblings, family, whānau, hapū, iwi, and family group; and
 - (B) wider contacts:
- (iii) respect and honour, on an ongoing basis, the importance of the child's or young person's whakapapa and the whanaungatanga responsibilities of the child's or young person's family, whānau, hapū, iwi, and family group:
- (iv) support the child or young person to achieve their aspirations and developmental potential:
- (k) if a child or young person is placed with a caregiver under section 362, the chief executive, or, if applicable, a body or an organisation approved under section 396, should support the caregiver in order to enable the provision of the protection and assistance described in paragraph (j).

18A Assessment of parent of subsequent child

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
 - (a) is a person described in section 18B; and
 - (b) is the parent of a subsequent child; and
 - (c) has, or is likely to have, the care or custody of the subsequent child; and
 - (d) is not a person to whom subsection (7) applies.
- (2) If the chief executive believes on reasonable grounds that a person is a person to whom this section applies, the chief executive must, after informing the person (where practicable) that the person is to be assessed under this section, assess whether the person meets the requirements of subsection (3) in respect of the subsequent child.
- (3) A person meets the requirements of this subsection if,—
 - (a) in a case where the parent's own act or omission led to the parent being a person described in section 18B, the parent is unlikely to inflict on the subsequent child the kind of harm that led to the parent being so described; or
 - (b) in any other case, the parent is unlikely to allow the kind of harm that led to the parent being a person described in section 18B to be inflicted on the subsequent child.
- (4) Following the assessment,—
 - (a) if subsection (5) applies, the chief executive must apply for a care or protection order because the subsequent child is in need of care or protection on the ground in section 14(1)(c); or
 - (b) in any other case, the chief executive must decide not to apply as described in paragraph (a), and must instead apply under section 18C for confirmation of the decision not to apply for a care or protection order.
- (5) The chief executive must apply as described in subsection (4)(a) if the chief executive is not satisfied that the person, following assessment under this section, has demonstrated that the person meets the requirements of subsection (3).
- (6) No family group conference need be held before any application referred to in subsection (4) is made to the court, and nothing in section 70 applies, but a family group conference must be held before a care or protection order (other than an interim order) is made.
- (7) This subsection applies to the parent of a subsequent child if, since the parent last became a person described in section 18B,—
 - (a) the parent has been assessed under this section in relation to a subsequent child and, following that assessment,—
 - (i) the court has confirmed, under section 18C, a decision made under subsection (4)(b); or

- (ii) the chief executive applied for a care or protection order because the child was in need of care or protection on the ground in section 14(1)(c), but the application was refused on the ground that the court was satisfied that the parent had demonstrated that the parent met the requirements of subsection (3); or
- (b) the parent was, before this section came into force, subject to an investigation carried out by a social worker under section 17 in relation to a child who would, at that time, have fallen within the definition of a subsequent child, and—
 - (i) the social worker did not at that time form the belief that the child was in need of care or protection on a ground in section 14(1)(a) or (b) (as in force at that time); or
 - (ii) a family group conference was held, the parent addressed the concerns raised to the satisfaction of the chief executive, and the parent subsequently maintained care of the child.

Part 4 Youth justice

Principles

208 Principles

- (1) A court or person exercising powers under this Part, Part 5, or sections 351 to 360 must weigh the 4 primary considerations described in section 4A(2).
- (2) When weighing those 4 primary considerations, the court or person must be guided by, in addition to the principles in section 5, the following principles:
 - (a) that, unless the public interest requires otherwise, criminal proceedings should not be instituted against a child or young person if there is an alternative means of dealing with the matter:
 - (b) that criminal proceedings should not be instituted against a child or young person in order to provide any assistance or services needed to advance the well-being of the child or young person, or their family, whānau, hapū, or family group:
 - (c) that any measures for dealing with offending by children or young persons should be designed—
 - (i) to strengthen the family, whanau, hapu, iwi, and family group of the child or young person concerned; and
 - (ii) to foster the ability of families, whanau, hapu, iwi, and family groups to develop their own means of dealing with offending by their children and young persons:
 - (d) that a child or young person who commits an offence or is alleged to have committed an offence should be kept in the community so far as that is practicable and consonant with the need to ensure the safety of the public:
 - (e) that a child's or young person's age is a mitigating factor in determining—
 - (i) whether or not to impose sanctions in respect of offending by a child or young person; and

- (ii) the nature of any such sanctions:
 - (f) that any sanctions imposed on a child or young person who commits an offence should—
 - (i) take the form most likely to maintain and promote the development of the child or young person within their family, whanau, hapu, and family group; and
 - (ii) take the least restrictive form that is appropriate in the circumstances:
 - (fa) that any measures for dealing with offending by a child or young person should so far as it is practicable to do so address the causes underlying the child's or young person's offending:
 - (g) that—
 - (i) in the determination of measures for dealing with offending by children or young persons, consideration should be given to the interests and views of any victims of the offending (for example, by encouraging the victims to participate in the processes under this Part for dealing with offending); and
 - (ii) any measures should have proper regard for the interests of any victims of the offending and the impact of the offending on them:
 - (h) that the vulnerability of children and young persons entitles a child or young person to special protection during any investigation relating to the commission or possible commission of an offence by that child or young person.
- (3) If a court or person is exercising a power for the purpose of resolving alleged offending or offending by a child or young person, the court or person must be guided by, in addition to the principles listed in subsection (2) and section 5, the following principles:
- (a) the principle that reasonable and practical measures or assistance should be taken or provided to support the child or young person to prevent or reduce offending or reoffending; and
 - (b) the principle that the child or young person should be referred to care, protection, or well-being services under this Act, if those services would be of benefit to them.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a Police employee unless the employee is employed as a specialist in resolving offending by children and young persons.

- (5) Before forming a view as to whether or not a family group conference would serve a useful purpose under subsection (1) or subsection (3), the youth justice co-ordinator shall consider whether a family group conference is necessary for the purpose of considering whether the young person should be required to make reparation for any offence.
