Sindh Human Rights Defenders Network is a provincial network of HRDs WHRDs and HRDs working for rights of citizens of different faiths and orientation which aims to provide a legal support, training to the HRDs working on the various issues such as enforced disappearances, extra judicial killings, honor killings, religious extremism including political rights. The network is a platform to bring all the HRDs and WHRDs on a single platform for collective struggle.

International Activist Convening
(IAC) – Nepal

IAC- Nepal was organized by Solidarity 2020 Beyond (S2020B) held at Nepal from 15 to 19 March 2023.

Around 80 Activists/human rights defenders from 41 countries of all the regions of the world gathered at Kathmandu. All these activists were experienced and knowledgeable in different subjects and contexts of their respective regions/countries.

The topics which were discussed, presented included civil resistance, nonviolence, transitional justice, international criminal law, human rights defenders, dictators, anti-corruption, rights to information, protection of women rights defenders, migration, land rights, media and rights movements.

This IAC-Nepal helped us to meet and learn from different experienced activists, gained knowledge about nonviolence, human rights, civil resistance and other subjects and approaches. RightsNow Foundation got opportunity to present the work of Sindh Human Rights Defenders Network (SHRDN), strategies we use for the protection of hrds includes protective accompaniment, presence, lobbying, advocacy, press and other tools. The outcome of the IAC-Nepal is underneath Kathmandu Declaration 2023 and formation of global and regional networks on protection of human rights defenders.

The logo features a stylized white figure of a person with arms raised, positioned within a white semi-circular arc above the letter 'i' in the word 'Sindh'.
