

Ethical Business and Recruitment Practices in Labour Migration

A Training Program for Practitioners

April 27-29, 2016, Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Organised by the Diplomacy Training Program in Partnership with Migrant Forum Asia & Middle East Centre for Training and Development

Schedule v.04

	Day 1 -- April 27	Day 2 – April 28	Day 3 – April 29
Morning 1 9.00 to 10:30	8.30 – 9.00: Registration Welcome Remarks – DTP MECTD MFA Round of Introductions Logistics etc	Human Rights and Migrant Workers - Identifying the Key Issues & Sharing perspectives	Civil Society, Business and Government – The Challenges of Engagement and Collaboration for Change – Identifying Priorities
Facilitator(s)	MFA/DTP
Tea 10:30-10:45
Morning 2 10:45-12:30	Participants’ Introductions/expectations Training outline – Objectives and Schedule Migrant Workers and Business – Top 5 Key Issues – Group Work	Human Rights and Migrant Workers: Recruitment - Agreeing the key human rights issues in countries of origin and destination – - Sharing Perspectives/Experiences on addressing and preventing abuses – towards ethical, no-fee recruitment	Engaging With Business on the Rights of Migrants – The Why and How – Practical Session
Facilitator(s)	MFA/DTP
Lunch
Afternoon 1 2:00-3:30	Human Rights and Migrant Workers and Business – International Human Rights Standards The State Duty to Protect Human Rights and the Right to Remedy - What does it mean for countries	Human Rights and Migrant Workers - Challenges and Good Practice in Ensuring Respect for the Rights of Migrant Workers in Practice o Working Groups	Building Collaboration for Change - Identifying the Next Steps/Priorities
Facilitator(s)	Associate Professor Justine Nolan/Prof Paul Redmond
Tea 3:30-3:45
Afternoon 2 3:45-5:30pm Introductory Session – 3:30PM	Human rights, Migrant Workers and Business – The Corporate Responsibility to Respect and Protect	Human Rights and Migrant Workers - What does or could access to justice and remedy look like in practice – for government and business – Group Work
Facilitator(s)	Professor Paul Redmond/AProf Justine Nolan
Evening
Evening Events	Free Time

