

မြန်မာအမျိုးသမီး လွှတ်တော်ကိုယ်စားလှယ်များကွန်ရက်
MYANMAR WOMEN PARLIAMENTARIANS NETWORK

SAVE THE DATE:

Regional Exchange on Women's Political Participation in post-coup Myanmar

28 March 2024, online

Please save the date of 28 March 2024 for a Regional Exchange on Women's Political Participation in post-coup Myanmar, organized by the Myanmar Women's Parliamentary Network (MWPAN).

The exchange aims to facilitate discussions and learning on advancing women's political participation in today's Myanmar, exploring challenges and opportunities, building alliances, and identifying good practices from the Southeast Asian region.

The panelists will include Burmese parliamentarians and women leaders as well as prominent women politicians from the region, engaging on the topics of Women's Political Participation in post-coup Myanmar, and Regional Good Practices and Affirmative Measures to ensure Women's Rights and Gender Equality in Laws and Policies.

In terms of target audience, the event is intended for Women MPs and parliamentary women's networks from Southeast Asia, women leaders from Myanmar, including women in government, legislature and in state/regions, international organizations and think tanks working on women's political participation in the region.

The event will be hosted online, on Zoom, on 28 March 2024, 13.00 CET – 15.00 CET (18.30 MMT – 20.30 MMT, 19.00 BKK – 21.00 BKK time). Simultaneous translation will be provided in English and Burmese. A link to register for the event will be sent in early March 2024.

For any further questions or inquiries, please reach out to Myanmar Women Parliamentarians Network, at myanmar@wmpnetwork.org.

Myanmar Women Parliamentarians Network